Background & Development

Adopted in June 2011	Adopted on February 22, 2011	In force since December 1st, 2010; Tightened as a reaction to the tightened law in Vienna and worries of evasion of beggars towards Lower Austria.	Valid since January 1st, 2002	Tightened in March 2010 ("commercial begging")	In force since 1979	Tightened in February 2011 (now general ban in public spaces)	In force since September 17, 1976
VfGH has been dealing with the ban on begging in Linz since the end of February 2012 (1/3 of the LT MPs, specifically the SPÖ and the Greens have called the VfGH) In 2012, the VfGH deemed the ban against begging unconstitutional (G132/11).	Proceedings before the Constitutional Court on the initiative of the SPÖ or the Greens are pending. In 2012 the VfGH (G118/11) issued a rejection regarding the request of a third of members of the Carinthian Landtag to repeal a regulation regarding the ban on begging in Carinthia, as no absolute begging ban is standardized in the Krnt National Security Act			Proceedings before the Constitutional Court since February 27, 2012 (application by a beggar from Vienna). In 2012 the VfGH (G134/10) issued a rejection of the individual application by regarding the lifting of the ban on commercial begging in the Vienna State Security Act is inadmissible; This is based on a incorrect premise that the applicant is directly affected as there is no absolute ban on begging standardized in the law.	political demands for additional restrictions under foreign law ("begging register") In 2012 the VfGH (VfGH G155 / 10) deemed the ban unconstitutional.	In 2012 the VfGH (G64 / 11) deemed the ban unconstitutional.
