

International Commission of Human Rights Experts on Ethiopia

Submission Sheet

The International Commission of Human Rights Experts on Ethiopia (hereafter the “Commission”) invites individuals, groups, and organizations to submit information and documentation relevant to its mandate, including:

- Alleged violations and abuses of international human rights law, international humanitarian law, and international refugee law in Ethiopia committed since 3 November 2020 by all parties to the conflict, including the possible gender dimensions of such violations and abuses;
- Identification of those responsible;
- Recommendations on transitional justice, including accountability, reconciliation and healing.

Kindly fill in this sheet with any relevant information, and attach it along with the submissions. It is not a requirement to provide all requested information if not available, though particular attention should be given to filling in the section on consent. It is necessary for you to fill in the information on consent on page 3 in order for the Commission to use this information, as it indicates your preferences for the use of the information and your identifying information.

Unless otherwise indicated in the form, the Commission will consider all materials received to be usable in its reports, but without attribution as to the source.
