

Multi stakeholders' consultation:

The Gender Lens to the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights

30 April 2018
Holiday Inn, Suva Fiji

ANNOTATED AGENDA

Topic	Time
Registration	8.45am – 09.00am
Welcome Address	09.00am –09.10	Mr. Patrick Marega Castellan, Deputy Regional Representative, OHCHR ROP OHCHR Prof. Surya Deva, UN Working Group on Business & Human Rights
Opening	09.10-09.30	Hon. Mereseini Vuniwaqa, Minister for Women, Children & Poverty Alleviation, Fiji
International framework governing business and human rights	09.30 – 09.40 am	Mr. Patrick Marega Castellan, Deputy Regional Representative, OHCHR ROP OHCHR

Key ILO Conventions and labour standards	09.40 -09.50 am	Mr. Donglin Li, ILO Director for Pacific Island Countries
Women's Empowerment Principles	09.40 -09.50 am	Ms. Preeya Ieli, Women's Economic Empowerment Programme Specialist, UN Women Fiji Multi-Country Office
Coffee break
Introducing the UN Working Group's gender project and regional consultations	10.15am – 10.45am	Prof. Surya Deva, UN Working Group on Business & Human Rights
The gender lens to business and human rights: Experiences of women across sectors and settings in Fiji and the Pacific region	10.45am – 12.00pm	Session introduced by: Ms Seema Naidu, Gender Issues Officer, Pacific Island Secretariat
Lunch
Tipping the scale against violence against women, sexual harassment and other abuses. How businesses can respond	13:00pm– 14:15pm	Session introduced by: Ms Roshika Deo, Social Inclusion and Gender Development Specialist
Intersectionality of discrimination against women: state and corporate responsibility to respect women's human rights and increase opportunities for women participation as entrepreneur	14:15pm-15:30pm	Session introduced by: Dr Nur Bano Ali, President, Women in Business
Coffee break
Moving from discrimination and exclusion to human rights due diligence and empowerment	15:45pm-17:00pm
Closing	17:00pm	Ms. Osnat Lubrani, UN Resident Coordinator & UNDP Resident Representative