III. MOTIVATION LETTER, INCLUDING YOUR VISION OF THE MANDATE

600-word limit. Must be typed in the space below. Cannot be sent in a separate email or as an attachment. To be written by the candidates themselves, even if nominated by another entity.

I am a Senior Fellow Minority Rights Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights UN. I am a minority from the Itsekiri ethnic minority of Warri, in Delta State, Niger Delta region Nigeria.

I would be extremely honored to serve in the position of Special Rapporteur on minority issues and I believe that my experience and competencies are particularly well suited to supporting the work of the mandate.

I am a trained Lawyer with strong passion for promoting, protecting and preserving the minority rights of men, women and children especially the girl child in my ethnic community. As a minority from the Itsekiri ethnic minority of Warri, in Delta State Nigeria; I am well suitable for the above position as I have lived with the minorities all my life as such very well acquitted with minority issues. I have a mandate to use human rights as a tool to ameliorate minority rights abuse.

As Special Rapporteur I will build on the work of the Human Rights Council and to amplify issues and challenges actionable to promote and protect human rights and dignity of minority victims of human rights abuse. I will foster societal reintegration by promoting minority rights in a bid to achieve the 1992 United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Persons Belonging to National or Ethnic, Religious and Linguistic Minorities. From my childhood while growing up, I have washed as my ethnic minority was been marginalized and trampled upon by other majority tribes and the multinationals who took away our oils in the Niger Delta and left the land desolate and its inhabitant in abject poverty, lack of basic health amenities, homelessness and deprivations. I am a survivor of rape and female trafficking I therefore tilted to same sex, unfortunately my country refused to sign in the LGBTQI rights into law and rather has criminalized it in our laws. I survived and went to law school. As a survivor, I have a passion to promote, protect and preserve the minority rights of men, women and children; NO ONE should suffer a human rights abuse. Thus when I became a lawyer I decided to fight all forms of human rights abuse no matter the name they are called, I became a member of various non state actors like the International Federation for Women Lawyers (FIDA) I worked with Civil Centre for Peace, Justice and Development (CCPJD) an NGO where I champion an awareness raising project for school aged children in 15 secondary school for 5 communities in Rivers State Nigeria educating them on their rights as well as establishing a Gender Justice Club each for them.

I am also United Nations 2015 Global Champion for Women Economic Empowerment, and a United Nations certified professional on "Gender Equality, Human Rights and Me". I am a prolific writer and author. I have published various documents to create awareness of Human and women's Rights.

I have supported activities against gender discrimination, campaign on violence against women, child abuse, protected minority and indigenous peoples rights, demonstrated strong commitment to human rights with a global feminist perspective. I am a policy change maker, Now I want to effect change in the status of human rights victims and I want that to happen right NOW.

I have litigated and won cases for minorities who cannot afford litigation and rendered legal aid supports on pro-bono basis at the Customary Court of Appeal Rivers State, I am one of the very few Lawyers who made representations to United Nations training and research (UNITAR) on the environmental pollution in Ogoni land of Rivers State which gave rise to UNESCO recommendation and thereat Ogoni Clean up.

I will bring to the Human Rights Council not only these professional skills, but also a positive, cooperative attitude that I have displayed throughout my career.
