

Pledge submitted by Paraguay to the Human Rights 75 Secretariat
December 2023

Original language of submission: English

Type of pledge: Single (by one state/actor)

Pledging entity: Government of Israel

PLEDGE NUMBER 1: Israel pledges to continue protecting the right to, in full respect of its responsibility to protect its population and its obligations under International Humanitarian Law and International Human Rights Law, by fighting terrorist organizations and others who actively promote arbitrary deprivation of life and murder, with genocidal intents.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Dec 10, 2023

PLEDGE NUMBER 2: Israel pledges to continue its fight against antisemitism, including by: (a) calling for awareness and action to combat the global spike in antisemitic discourse, harassment and violence; (b) combatting incitement and justification of hate speech that targets Jewish people worldwide, as well as the proliferation of misinformation. (c) continuing the promotion of a structural change within the UN system, to address the widespread antisemitic discourse and actions by staff, officials and experts, as well as for the UN to push for the adoption of a zero-tolerance institutional policy to combat antisemitism.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Dec 10, 2024