

Pledge submitted by Museums Galleries Scotland to the Human Rights 75 Secretariat
December 2023

Original language of submission: English

Type of pledge: Single (by one state/actor)

Pledging entity: Museums Galleries Scotland

Location: United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

PLEDGE NUMBER 1: As custodians of our shared cultural heritage, museums have an important role in supporting individuals and communities to understand and claim their rights. Museums can also respect, protect and fulfil the rights of those they employ and who contribute to the development of their activities. Over the next five years, Museums Galleries Scotland pledges to support and equip Scotland's museums to: - Respect, protect and fulfil people's rights. - Work proactively with individuals and communities through their active, free and meaningful participation, - In order to unlock the potential of museums to contribute to peace, dignity and equality for all on a healthy planet.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Nov 9, 2030
