

Pledge submitted by National Forum for Human Rights (NFHR) to the Human Rights 75
Secretariat
December 2023

Original language of submission: English

Type of pledge: Single (by one state/actor)

Pledging entity: National Forum for Human Rights (NFHR)

Location: Yemen

PLEDGE NUMBER 1: We: (The National Forum for Human Rights) pledge to develop and implement a plan to promote human rights in Yemen, the following human rights indicators: (Increasing awareness about human rights and related issues in Yemen through education, training and social communication. And working with international organizations to pressure the Yemeni government to conduct Legal and policy changes to protect human rights, cooperate with NGOs, and work with local and international NGOs working to improve human rights in Yemen. 1- Achieving a tangible improvement of 25% in the specified human rights indicators by the end of 2029. 2- Providing the necessary resources and support to achieve this pledge, and focusing on achieving improvements in areas that directly affect the lives of people in Yemen. 3- Achieving this goal by December 31, 2029 We expect that achieving this goal will lead to tangible improvements in the lives of people in Yemen.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Dec 31, 2029