

Pledge submitted by Soroptimist International to the Human Rights 75 Secretariat
December 2023

Original language of submission: English

Type of pledge: Single (by one state/actor)

Pledging entity: Soroptimist International

Location: United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

PLEDGE NUMBER 1: Specific: A world with no war, only peace. Measurable/achievable: Governments/all parties must consciously re-commit to the underpinning principles of the UDHR by engaging in open and respectful dialogue where everyone is valued as equals and diversity is celebrated. Relevant: Ongoing armed conflicts that we are witnessing are human rights' catastrophes, with cataclysmic implications on social justice at large, including climate justice, gender equality, and the fulfilment of human rights. Time-bound: Action required immediately. Outcome: Safe, peaceful, inclusive, and prosperous societies which can contribute to global sustainable development and a healthy planet upon which current and future generations can thrive.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Dec 31, 2030
