

Pledge submitted by Students Assembly of Faculty of Law Iustinianus Primus to the Human Rights 75 Secretariat
December 2023

Original language of submission: English

Type of pledge: Single (by one state/actor)

Pledging entity: Students Assembly of Faculty of Law Iustinianus Primus

Location: North Macedonia

PLEDGE NUMBER 1: We acknowledge the significance of this historic moment of commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as an opportunity to do more to fulfil its promises. The young students of Faculty of Law Iustinianus Primus commit to advocate, promote and protect the rights and dignity of all human beings, without any distinction, during their professional formation and legal clinics, as well as in future career paths. In the next two years, concrete actions will be taken to promote environmental justice and build the knowledge and awareness about the new right to a clean, healthy, and sustained environment, as a new universal right. We will join and amplify voices with other actors in finding solutions to emerging challenges related to the climate emergency, like carbon emission, pollution, biodiversity collapse, climate and forced migration to ensure sustained future of all life on the planet.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Dec 10, 2024
