

Pledge submitted by the United Nation Joint Programme on HIV/AIDS Secretariat (UNAIDS) to the Human Rights 75 Secretariat
December 2023

Original language of submission: English

Type of pledge: Single (by one state/actor)

Pledging entity: United Nation Joint Programme on HIV/AIDS

PLEDGE NUMBER 1: To scale up its work with countries and communities to help remove discriminatory laws that prevent people from enjoying their right to health.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Jun 1, 2026

PLEDGE NUMBER 2: To expand its work to end inequalities in the HIV response by working further to reduce all forms of HIV-related stigma and discrimination.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Jun 1, 2026

PLEDGE NUMBER 3: To be a strong advocate for the protection and promotion of the human rights of the world's most marginalized people and to counter the global anti-rights movement.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Jun 1, 2026

PLEDGE NUMBER 4: To work towards ending all forms of gender-based violence, one of the most persistent and egregious of human rights violations.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Jun 1, 2026

PLEDGE NUMBER 5: To support the leadership of people living with or affected by HIV – including adolescents, young people and women in all their diversity, gay men and other men who have sex with men, transgender people, sex workers, and people who use drugs – to meaningfully participate in the HIV response and decisions that affect their lives.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Jun 1, 2026
